LOCAL DOTS.

— Register to-day.

— This is positively the last day of registration.

— Be true to your country and to your race to-day.

— Beast Butler will smile with satisfaction if you fail to register TO-DAY.

— Did you read Butler's circular to his henchmen printed in yesterday's STAR? Register to-day.

— The city rock quarries have suspended operations temporarily on account of a broken valve in the pump used in clearing the shaft of water.

— Unless your name is on the registration books at sunset to-night YOUR vote counts AGAINST the Amendment and you will be unable to vote for Aycock.

— The examination of applicants for teachers' certificates was concluded yesterday morning at the Court House by Capt. Ed. Wilson Manning and the papers were forwarded.

— The packing of one the boilers in the power house of the Wilmington Street Railway Company blew out at 4.12 o'clock yesterday afternoon and it was some time before the mishap could be remedied.

— Capt. Ed. Wilson Manning, County Superintendent of Public Instruction, invites bids for the erection of a frame one-story school building to replace the one burned on Middle Sound last session.

— Will you continue indifferent and not register to day? Of course New Hanover will give 3,000 majority anyway without another registration, but YOUR VOTE is necessary to overcome a vote against the Amendment in negro ridden counties of the East.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Mercer & Evans—Sincere thanks.

REGISTER TO-DAY!

Democrats Will Exhanst Every Effort to Have a Full Registration.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE EAST.

Speaking in Brunswick and Pender Counties--The Second Regiment Band and Detachment of Naval Reserves Will Leave for Whiteville.

Activity will be the watchword with Democrats to-day and every nerve will be strained until each white man in the county has his name on the registration books. As has been oft repeated in these columns, to-day is positively the last and every white man should see to it that not only has he registered himself but that his neighbor has done likewise. Next Saturday the registrars will be at the several polling places for the purpose of allowing an inspection of their books and entering any challenges that may be made. Challenges may also be made on election day. No registration will be allowed after to-day unless the person offering to register has become qualified since to day, and in that event he will be permitted to register on election day. The election takes place August 2nd., and not only will the Amendment be voted upon but State, county and legislative officers are also to be chosen.

Mr. John R. Bannerman, nominee for the legislature from Pender county, came down to the city last evening and spent the night here. He says the people of his county are determined to win and it looks very much that way now. The county candidates began their canvass Monday and are meeting with much success. To day they will speak at Rocky Point and Monday at Hampstead. Iredell Meares, Esq., of Wilmington, will be with them at both places. No Republican or Populist ticket has yet been put in the field in Pender but Mr. Bannerman learns that they will have a meeting at Burgaw to day for the purpose of making nominations.

Bladen had her "Aycock Day" yesterday at Elizabethtown and to-day it comes Columbus' turn. The speaking will take place at Whiteville and a rousing reception for "Our Next Governor" has been planned. The Second Regiment Band of Wilmington will leave the city on the freight train early this morning to furnish music for the occasion and a detachment of Naval Reserves from the Wilmington Division with one of their big brass Howitzers will also go along. Those composing the party will be S. A. Matthews (in charge), James Fisher, Alex. Greenabaum, C. E. Fisher and Joe Lane.

Capt. George L. Morton will leave this morning for Brunswick county where under instructions of Chairman Guthrie, of the Democratic Executive Committee, he will begin a canvass of the county for the Amendment. Monday, 23rd inst., he will speak in Boone's Neck township at R. S. Hewett's store; on Wednesday, 25th, in Shallotte township at Shingle Tree, and on Friday, 27th, in Waccamaw township at Moore & Frink's store.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer says:

"Governor Russell will vote in Brunswick county this year, having registered there. This may mean that he will not return to Wilmington in January."

Arrested The Wrong Man.

Deputy Sheriff D. A. Rowan went to Chadbourn early yesterday morning to arrest Sam Simmons, the negro who shot John Howe a few days ago, and he returned with what he thought was the guilty man, but an investigation proved that he was the wrong negro, and Sheriff MacRae ordered him turned loose. The negro whom Officer Rowan arrested had remarked to several parties that he was Simmons and the information was made known to the authorities and led to his arrest.

May Erect Building.

The Order of Chosen Friends is contemplating the purchase of a lot on Front street on which to erect a handsome building. The order is in a very flourishing condition and the members find their present quarters on Third street inadequate. A committee has been appointed to look into the matter of securing a suitable lot and will make a report on it at their next meeting.

Excursion from Mt. Olive.

Hatch Bros.' excursion from Mount Olive arrived yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with about 300 people. The train was composed of five coaches and baggage car, and was run through to Wrightsville. The excursionists returned to the city at 5 o'clock and left at 8 o'clock in the evening, after having spent a pleasant day by the seashore.

On to Washington City.

Remember day and date Tuesday, July 24 1900, train will leave Wilmington, N. C., A. C. L. Depot, at 8.30 A. M. sharp. All those intend going can secure state rooms by writing either Mr. C. W. Polvogt, Wilmington, N. C., or R. E. Pipkin, Goldsboro, N. C. We want every body to secure state rooms at least one week before July 25, 1900.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 20.—Inability to hit was the cause of Raleigh's downfall to-day at the hands of the Durham team. The features of the game were Mangum's pitching, Carr's centre field work, O'Brien and McCaffery's errors and Atkinson's muff of a pop fly. Outside of this error Atkinson's playing was first class. He showed more ginger than the rest of the team put together, Sutch, the new pitcher, showed up well, striking out seven batters. Bass batted for McCaffery in the ninth inning, but only popped up a fly to the pitcher.

Bankers' Union of The World.

Prof. C. A. Wright, District Manager, last night organized "Joseph E. Johnston" Lodge, Bankers' Union of the World, in Odd Fellow's Hall with quite a large membership. The following officers were elected:

President—Dr. J. D. Webster.
Past President—W. B. McKoy.
Vice President—Dr. W. D. McMillan.
Secretary—Henry P. West.
Chaplain—J. M. Forshee.
Medical Examiner—Dr. Charles T. Harper.
Overseer—H. C. Twining.
Guard—Chas. L. Taylor.
Sentinel—J. W. Creasy.

The order has social and beneficiary features and during its nineteen months' existence has gathered into its fold 12,500 members. Six lodges have already been instituted in North Carolina. The charter for the lodge at Wilmington will be kept open until next Friday night.

Seashore Hotel Dance.

The dance which was to have been given by the Carolina Yacht Club last night did not take place on account of the orchestra which had been engaged for the occasion getting left in the city. Through the courtesy of Mr. J. H. Hinton, proprietor of the Seashore Hotel, the use of the dining room and Prof. Miller's orchestra was tendered to the club members and their friends, and a highly enjoyable evening was spent. There were about thirty-five couples in attendance, among whom were many visitors. The dance was one of the most pleasant of the season.

Mr. Brown Roughly Treated.

Correspondence Charlotte Observer: "Mr. J. A. Brown, Democratic candidate for the State Senate from Robeson and Columbus, lives at Chadbourn, in the latter county. D. J. Lewis is a sore-headed politician who left the Democratic party in 1898 because he was defeated for the nomination for solicitor for this district by C. F. McNeill. He joined the fusionists and is now a candidate for the Senate against Mr. Brown. A few days ago Lewis invited Brown to his office to arrange for a joint debate. Brown went and was cruelly beaten by a lot of thugs who had gathered in Lewis' room seemingly for that purpose. The word has gone out and before the election trouble will come."

Marriage Announcement.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Lucy Mary Harrell, sister of Mrs. Walter Kingsburry, to Mr. T. Arlington McKelvie, Thursday at noon, August 2nd, at No. 121 South Sixth street. Mr. McKelvie formerly resided at Charlotte but has been in Wilmington for some time as travelling representative of a large publishing house.

Arm Broken.

Neal Oldenbuttel, the five-year old son of Mrs. Jno. G. Oldenbuttel, fell from a fence at his home, corner Tenth and Market streets, late Thursday afternoon and dislocated his left arm at the elbow and broke the large bone in the upper part of the arm. The injured limb was dressed by Drs. A. H. Harriss and Asa Love. The little fellow was getting along nicely at last accounts.

PROMINENT LAGRANGE CITIZENS ARRESTED.

It Is Claimed They Are Proprietors of Alleged Fraudulent Concern Doing Business Through Wilmington.

The local postoffice authorities yesterday received notice of the arrests of Messrs. J. M. Murchison and W. H. Taylor, prominent business men of LaGrange, N. C., who are said to be president and secretary, respectively, of the "Southern Cotton Association," an alleged fraudulent concern claiming headquarters at Wilmington, N. C., and having for its object the procuring of situations as cotton buyers for its clients, who were, it is said, charged $5, "cash with order," for its service. The concern advertised quite extensively in North and South Carolina papers and it is learned that through the Wilmington postoffice it did a land office business, judging from the large amount of mail received through its private lock box, which was at intervals emptied of the voluminous correspondence.

The attention of the authorities at Washington was called to the suspicious circumstances under which the concern was doing business and Postoffice Inspector Jeremiah Conelley, of this district, was detailed to look up the case which culminated in the arrests as set forth above.

Messrs. Murchison and Taylor were arrested Thursday night by Deputy Marshal Mangum and carried before United States Commissioner Hugh Humphrey, of Goldsboro, where they promptly gave bond in the sum of $1,000 and were discharged. They employed as counsel Messrs. Munroe and Daniels, of Goldsboro. Mr. Conelley was at work on the case only about two weeks.

The concern began business according to receipts of mail at the postoffice several months ago. Many of the letters were addressed simply to "Cotton," while others were addressed in full. There was quite an accumulation of mail at first, so it is said, but more recently the proprietors of the concern sent for the mail with some degree of regularity.

Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son received frequent inquiries as to whether they were interested in the "company" and of course replied "no." It is claimed by the prosecution that the location of headquarters for the concern at Wilmington was to have the benefit of the influence of Messrs. Sprunt & Son, as the natural inference would be that they or Mr. J. H. Sloan, the only exporters in Wilmington, were really in need of men.

It is learned that friends of the two men arrested, claim that Messrs. Murchison and Taylor will find no difficulty in proving themselves innocent of the charge of using the mail for fraudulent purposes at the preliminary investigation.

BLADEN ENTHUSED.

Aycock at Elizabethtown--Three Thousand People Assembled to Hear the Speaking There.

[Special Star Telegram.]

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. C., July 20.—Aycock spoke here to-day to three thousand people. The white people simply "turned out." The old men said, "Never such a time since Vance spoke in 1876." Mr. Paterson, candidate for Agricultural Commissioner, was the first speaker. His speech was well received by his farmer friends, and his discussion of the amendment was entirely satisfactory. The Lumberton Band furnished music for the occasion. Red Shirts, music, big dinner and big speaking was the order of the day.

Hon. J. A. Lochart is to speak at Clarkton to-night. The ladies were out in full force. Aycock was at his best. Old men wept, young men applauded and the ladies approved. Bladen is enthused.

AYCOCK AT CLARKTON.

Red Shirts and Float Filled With Ladies Accompanied Him to Elizabethtown.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

CLARKTON, N. C., July 20.—Hon. C. B. Aycock, who will speak at Elizabethtown to day, arrived here last night. The people throughout this section have been making preparations for this occasion, and it will undoubtedly be the climax of the campaign in Bladen. A very formidable procession of mounted red shirts and about twenty-five ladies who rode in a conveyance made and highly decorated for the occasion, drawn by six white horses, accompanied Mr. Aycock to Elizabethtown from here to-day. Mr. Aycock goes from Elizabethtown to Whiteville where he speaks Saturday.

"Just For Fun."

That he may be "known and read" and understood by his fellow countrymen, the STAR prints the following:

"LUMBERTON, N. C., July 20.—Some person has misinformed you in regard to my voting for the Amendment. I am not going to do it. I did put on a red shirt Wednesday for fun, but none since. Please correct your statement in regard to my voting for the Amendment. Respectfully,

"E. K. PROCTOR, SR."

CHAMPIONS DOWNED.

Henry Brian's Boys from Tarboro Received a Severe Drubbing.

SAILORS HAD A WALK OVER.

Score Was 14 to 6 in Favor of Wilmington—Both Teams Made Costly Errors--Home Team Had on Their Batting Clothes Yesterday.

The Tarboro "champions" were easily defeated by Wilmington's aggregation of ball tossers at Hilton Park yesterday afternoon and the fans were simply carried away. There were many who predicted Tarboro's "Waterloo," but none thought for a minute that the home team would win with hands down as she did. Manager Brian, the "Ned Hanlon of North Carolina," brought his team here flushed with a long and unbroken string of recent victories and felt confident that his boys would have a balloon ascension with the "Sailors," but his men didn't have any more fun than the fellow who kicked a blown up paper bag that contained a healthy brick from the sidewalk.

The weather conditions were favorable and a large crowd of spectators were present when the Wilmington sluggers made a monkey of pitcher Jordan. He was willing but his curves didn't mystify Capt. Wills' men and every time he put one over the plate there would be a lively chase after the ball. "Cap" Collier capped the climax when he lifted the sphere over the left field fence for four bags and came tripping home amid the cheers of hundreds of enthusiastic admirers.

The game was characterized by errors on both sides. With the exception of the second and ninth innings, Wilmington played great ball, but in those two innings a conglomeration of errors allowed the visitors to run up five runs. Summersgill pitched a good game and "Red" Foster did splendid work behind the bat. Charlie Stearns did star work on third and used the stick to much advantage. Bacon at second and Williams on short did the best work for the Tarboroites.

The following will give a more complete idea of the game:

WHAT THE AMENDMENT WILL DO.

North Carolina has long had the reputation of being slow to act, but she has also had the reputation of acting with determination and in earnest when she came to the conclusion that action became necessary. The very fact that she does move slowly may be the reason that she moves with such earnestness when she does move. Unrestricted suffrage has ever since it was imposed upon her been a source of annoyance and of trouble, and sometimes of peril, but she bore it patiently although her patience was severely tried. Patience at last ceased to be a virtue, and then came action, not wild, impetuous action, but cool, deliberate action, characteristic of her people. The suffrage question had to be solved and she went about it in a way to protect herself from the dangerous element and do injustice to no one whose ballot did not carry danger with it.

South Carolina nearly twenty-five years ago solved the problem for herself first with guns and afterwards by law; Mississippi followed in somewhat the same way, and Louisiana solved it for herself by eliminating the dangerous element. With these as guides the way to the solution of the problem was clear, and the Constitutional Amendment patterned after the Louisiana Amendment was framed and submitted to the people who said vote upon its ratification or rejection on the first Thursday in August.

Ample time was taken in framing and discussing this measure before it was submitted to the vote of the Legislature, and then ample time was given for its full and free discussion before the people were called upon to give their verdict upon it.

No measure was ever submitted to the people of this State which was more carefully and thoroughly considered before submitted to the people or more freely and thoroughly discussed afterwards, and there is probably not a grown person in the State who has not read it or heard it discussed.

That there is a very large majority of the people of the State who believe that it is a measure that promises inestimable good to the State there is not the slightest ground for doubt, and that a very large majority of them will say so by their ballots on the second day of August there is not the slightest ground for doubt, either. There are many reasons why they will do so, some of which are that they believe it will prove

A peace preserver.

A ballot box protector.

A purifier of elections.

A promoter of quiet elections.

A promoter of honest elections.

A fairer test of the sense of the people.

A remover of the venal element from politics.

A remover of the incompetent element.

A remover of the trifling and worthless element.

A remover of the friction between the races.

A preventer of fraudulent registration.

A preventer of perjury.

A preventer of the importation of voters.

A preventer of mob gatherings in campaigns.

A preventer of strife and disturbances on election days.

An eliminater not only of the mob element from politics, but also of the unscrupulous, mercenary and incendiary leaders of the mob, who being without material to work upon will be without a vocation.

It will prevent corrupt bargaining by self-seeking leaders, who will be deprived of the ignorant material to trade upon.

Eliminating these elements it will put politics on a higher plane, when issues in which the people are interested may be discussed upon their merits.

It will elevate politics so that the better class of people, regardless of party alignment, will take more interest in it, and more interest in the men nominated to represent them.

But in addition to this it will be a peace-preserver and political campaigns may be conducted without danger of disturbance of the peace, or riot, or bloodshed, for the disturbing element will no longer gather at public meetings, inflamed with liquor to give offense and cause trouble.

Peaceably disposed people will feel relieved of the strain, and wives, mothers and sisters may see an election approach without feelings of alarm and apprehension.

These are all good enough reasons why thoughful citizens who wish well to the State should vote for the amendment, but there are others which should influence thoughtful negroes who wish well to their race to vote for it, or at least to refrain from voting against it if they lack the moral courage or if they fear to vote for it.

Taking the ignorant negro out of politics he will be removed from temptation and will cease to be the pliant tool of the designing politician.

Having no interest in politics, he will lose less time following the politicians, will give more and better attention to his work and thus be the gainer materially.

Removed from politics and evil counsellors, he will cease to antagonize the people who are the best able to help him and will help him the more willingly when he needs help.

And with this it is a stimulus to education for both white and black, and that should commend it to all.

These are some, but not all, of the reasons why thoughtful people who wish well to the State will vote for the amendment.

THE LAST DAY.

This is the last day for registration.

White men, you who believe in White Supremacy, if you have not already registered, do so at once.

At sunset to-day the books close and if your name is not on them you cannot vote.

Don't put it off but go at once, for something might happen to prevent you from registering if you put it off till late in the day.

If you have a neighbor who has not registered see him and take him with you.

Your vote may not be necessary to carry the amendment or elect the Democratic State ticket, but it may, but whether or not, as a white man and a believer in White Supremacy you should have race pride enough to stand by your race, as the negroes are standing by their race.

You will regret it if you do not register, for if defeated it will be because you and others like you failed to do your duty, and if we are victorious, although you will reap the fruits of the victory, you can lay no claim to the honor of it.

This is no ordinary election, for the issue at stake is one which appeals to every white man, and it is every white man's duty to do all he can to settle that issue and settle it right.

That issue is shall the white man or the negro rule North Carolina.

If you believe the white man should rule register now and say so by your ballot on the first Thursday in August.

THE WRITHING SNAKE

Like the wounded snake, Marion Butler, writhes and dies hard. He knows he is doomed, that his political days are numbered, and in a spirit of vengeance is doing all he can to bring trouble upon the State and the people who have turned him down.

Ever since he joined hands with Pritchard, Holton and Abe Middleton in opposition to the Constitutional Amendment he has been doing everthing that cunning could devise or malice suggest to circumvent and defeat the will of the white people of this State and he has shown a malicious zeal in this that eclipses the efforts of his Republican associates.

The baseness and perfidy of this is all the greater, for he is devoting his attention not so much to the negroes, but is trying to use white men against white men who have not yet, notwithstanding his often exposed trickery and treachery, lost faith in him, and with devilish intent is trying to array them against their neighbors by representing to them that they are the victims of a plot for their disfranchisement and oppression.

If there had been nothing more, if he had not furnished abundant evidence of this before, that secret circular which he has been sending to Populists throughout the State, which was published in the STAR yesterday, is conclusive proof of it. In telling what they had done, how they have had registrars arrested, and how they propose to pursue Democrats who have perjured tools of the Butler-Pritchard combination arrested, he uses the word we, which means Butler, Pritchard, Holton, Abe Middleton & Co.

Few men would have the brazen audacity and the shameless depravity to thus try to use better men than himself, but he shows by this effort to intimidate registrars and others that he knows little of the temper and the manhood of the people he is trifling with and trying to put under the heel of Butler, Pritchard & Co., and their allies—the negroes.

He will discover his mistake on the first Thursday in August, when the outraged people in their righteous indignation will thunder him into infamous oblivion.

The wounded snake writhes and sometimes bites itself to hasten the end. That's what Snake Butler is doing now.

CY THOMPSON WAS FOR IT.

Cyrus Thompson, the Populist candidate for Governor, said in an interview after the election in 1898, that the people expected the Democratic party to do something with the negro suffrage question so as to settle it, and the party would have to do it. He was in favor of that then.

Before the amendment was drafted the Caucasian, Marion Butler's paper, kept predicting that the Democrats in the Legislature would dodge, and shirk their duty, and when the amendment passed, it commended it as a good measure. That paper speaks for Marion Butler, who didn't change his views until he and Pritchard got together and struck up a bargain to pull together against the amendment, the consideration being for his services that Butler would go back to the Senate if the amendment was defeated and the anti-amendmentites carried the next Legislature.

But Cyrus Thompson not only favored eliminating the negro before the amendment was drafted but favored it after it was drafted and passed, as the following letter will show:

PLYMOUTH, N. C., June 25, 1900.

Hon. Claude Kitchin:

On a Sunday afternoon in February, 1899, a few days after the Legislature had passed the bill submitting the proposed Amendment, Dr. Cyrus Thompson said to me, while standing on the south end of the capitol, that he had advised the Populists in the Legislature to vote for the Amendment, and that he thought it was the best thing for the civilization of the State, and thought the Populist would support it at the polls. He said he would support it himself, and then qualified by saying: "That is, I think now I will." If you want this sworn to, send it back to me, but Dr. Thompson will not deny it.

Yours truly,
H. S. WARD,
State Senator Second District.

E. Y. Webb, Esq., states that at Shelby Dr. Thompson was shown this and asked if he made the statement. He replied "Yes," but that he had not at the time he made it investigated the Amendment.

What an absurd crawfish. "Hadn't investigated it." He read it while it was nnder discussion in the Legislature and was perfectly familiar with it when he told Mr. Ward he would support it.

Of the 8,000 or more words in Mr. McKinley's speech accepting the nomination there was not one word about trusts. He has got his cue, and is letting the trusts severely alone.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her. This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles 10c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Maxton Scottish Chief: The tobacco barn of Messrs. J. Q. McQueen was destroyed by fire last Thursday. The barn was full of tobacco at the time and the loss is considerable.

— Laurinburg Exchange: Mr. Daniel McIntire died at his home a few miles south of town last Thursday. In the death of Mr. McIntire the community loses its oldest and one of the most honored citizens. He was over 80 years old.

— Whiteville News: Mr. J. H. Carter who moved here from Abottsburg some time ago, died at his home of his brother near Vineland last Sunday afternoon. For some time past he had been suffering from consumption.

— Dunn Democrat: There were more people in Dunn Tuesday than have ever been seen here on one day before. Many former Populists came out and declared for the Amendment. Butler can't drag the honest Populist into the negro camp—the Republican party.

— Southport Standard: Mr. Joseph Skipper, of Town Creek, has among his tools two ship carpenter hammers which have been handed down from generation to generation ever since the year 1700, making these hammers 200 years old.

— Nashville Graphic: A white man named George W. Griffin and his wife, of near Sandy Cross were brought here late Tuesday night and placed in jail after having been tried by Squires R. C. Dixon, J. E. R. Winstead, W. H. Proctor and G. M. D. Langley for a criminal neglect of their children. From what we can learn of the affair it seems that Griffin and his last wife had very little love or feeling for three children by his second wife and that recently the little ones, aged 8, 10 and 13 years were taken sick and placed in an out-house, away from the heartless father and step-mother, and there left to the mercy of the neigbors and their feeble strength. Their condition gradually grew worse until death relieved them of their suffering. A warrant was issued against the inhuman parents and as a result they are now in jail awaiting court. — We regret to learn of the death of Mr. T. T. Lawson who died at his home near Springhope Wednesday of last week. Mr. Lawson was sitting on his front piazza and was seemingly in good health, but suddenly his head sank to his breast and in a short while he was dead. — The farmers report that tobacco is fast failing on account of the extremely dry weather.

— A Question of Funds: "My doctor ordered a trip to Europe for me!" "Did you follow his direction?" "No. He presented his bill and then took the trip to Europe himself."—Washington Star.

— Visitor—"What! A thousand francs a month for this garret room?" Paris Landlord—"Certainly, sir. Why, from that window there you can see the top of the roof of one of the Exposition buildings."

—Towne—"Hicult has conceived a horrible idea." Browne—"What is it? An infernal machine?" Towne—"It's infernal, sure enough. He proposs to set some of Browning's poems to Wagner's music."—Philadelphia Press.

— "My son," said his father, solemnly, "when you see a boy always loafing about the street corners, what place in life do you suppose he is fitting himself for?" "To be sure a policeman."—London Tit-Bits.

— One of Them—"A Chicago man has gained the power of speech by trying to commit suicide," remarked Mrs. Beechwood. "That must be one of the kill-or-cure remedies," added Mr. Beechwood.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

— Too Tame for Him: No," said the St. Louis man, "I didn't enjoy the street car ride you gave me. The scenery was all right and the roadbed good, but it was too tame." "Tame?" "Yes. At home I'm used to being blown up at every second street corner."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

— The trembling Boxer knelt before Li Hung Chang and strove to explain matters. "I must have lost my head. I see no other reason why I engaged in the uprising, Oh, Son of the Blue Sky," he wailed. "You are a trifle off in your grammar," interposed Li. "You should say: 'I will have lost my head.'" And the executioner stepped forward at the proper signal.—Baltimore American.

CURRENT COMMENT.

— It may be all right to recruit Filipino troops to fight under the American flag, but they should be put under bonds not to use the flag to decoy American troops into a Filipino ambuscade.—Philadelphia Times, Ind.

— A southern manufacturer, who went north rather jubilant about McKinley prosperity has returned home very blue on that subject. So it goes. There will be other similar experiences—Augusta Chronicle, Dem.

— Mark Hanna is establishing his reputation as a pusher. He pushed Mr. Quay out of the Senate, and now he has pushed him out of his place as a manager in the McKinley campaign. Two lions cannot romp in the same forest, and two bosses cannot boss in the same camp.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

— It is not at all likely that Mr. Hanna criticised Gov. Roosevelt's rough rider garb for publication. Mr. Hanna has some very sensible ideas concerning such matters, but he also understands the undesirability of airing political family affairs in public. Mr. Hanna's unchallenged interviews at Philadelphia indicated quite clearly what he thinks of the Roosevelt brand of statesmanship.—Washington Post, Ind.

WON HIM A BRIDE.

The Ruse by Which One Young Man's Credit Was Established.

Major J. M. Burke told a good story of his experience in helping a friend to get the girl of his choice.

"He was a good fellow," said he, "but young and without much capital. The girl was a beauty and loved the boy, but the father (the same old irate father) objected and demanded that the boy show that he was capable of supporting a wife. This was in St. Louis about ten years ago, and the boy came to me with his troubles.

"'Never mind,' said I. 'I'll fix it up all right. By the way, how much will you take for your right leg?'

"He looked at me as though I were crazy, but made no answer.

"'I'll give you $10,000 for it,' I said. 'Will you take it?'

"'No, I won't,' he said. 'What do you take me for?'

"Well, I knew the girl's father; he was a merchant, and I called to see him. We finally drifted around to talking about this young fellow, and the old man flared a little, stating that he wanted some one who could support a wife to have his daughter.

"'Support a wife!' said I, in surprise. 'Why, he certainly can do all that. Only a few days ago he refused $10,000 for a piece of property.'

"'His own property?' asked the father. 'Certainly,' said I.

"'Who offered him the money?' asked he.

"'I did, and he refused it,' I answered. 'He claimed it was worth more.'

"Well, this made a hit, and no more questions were asked. The boy is doing well now and has a good family. I haven't spoken to the father since."—Washington Times.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Interest in the cotton market showed abatement to day and a large portion of the business done represented withdrawals by operators from each side. The course of pendulations was too erratic to afford bulls or bears marked advantage, and increased the timidity in outside speculative circles caused by the sensational political news from China. The opening was easy, with first sales showing a drop of six to eleven points. The weakness did not culminate until August had fallen to 9.07 and January to 8.10. The South, the West, the foreign element and the room trade all sold freely on the slump, traders giving special attention to the August option. The cables received just after our opening conveyed the impression that longs in Europe were distrustful and inclined to unload as a matter of precaution. But with startling rapidity sentiment in the Liverpool market swung completely around near the close and badly frightened shorts here. Prices advanced with a rush, August climbing to 9.27 and January to 8.16 before a breathing spell was taken. Before midday a partial relapse set in. Rumors gained currency to the effect that influential European bulls had formed a strong clique to bulge the Summer months. This story lacked confirmation but kept shorts uneasy the greater part of the session. The marked closed quiet and steady with prices net unchanged to eight points lower.

FARM AND GARDEN

THE SOY BEAN.

Its Value to Stock, Hogs and Sheep. How to Plant and Harvest.

Some of the following reasons on account of which the Kansas station recommends the soy bean to farmers of that state will apply in some other sections and may interest those who are considering the question, "Will it pay to raise soy beans?"

The soy bean stands drought as well as Kaffir corn or sorghum. It is not touched by the chinch bugs, the grain is a richer feed than linseed meal, and the plant enriches the soil on which it is grown. It will cost the Kansas farmer from 40 to 55 cents per bushel to raise the soy bean, $13 to $18 per ton. Pound for pound soy beans are worth a little more than oil meal, and feeders are paying $24 to $30 a ton for oil meal.

A bountiful supply of protein will greatly increase the milk yield. Soy beans are rich in protein. Three to four pounds of soy beans per day added to the usual dairy ration of hay, fodder, sorghum and corn will increase the winter milk yield of the average Kansas cow from 25 to 100 per cent.

Fed to young pigs, soy beans will make them grow more rapidly and have better health. Fed to fattening hogs, soy beans will induce them to eat more, make more gain for each bushel of feed eaten and shorten the fattening period.

Soy beans fed to young stock will push their growth and "keep the calf fat," which is so necessary to economical feeding. Fed to fattening animals, soy beans will produce the same results as linseed meal at less cost.

Kansas sheep men should raise soy beans and secure the results obtained from linseed meal with a home grown feed at reduced cost.

Soy beans quickly and cheaply increase the yield of other crops.

The soy bean should not be planted until the ground becomes warm and the danger of severe frost is over. While the plants may not die if the seed is put in earlier, they do not thrive. The beans should be planted in rows 30 to 42 inches apart, with the single beans dropped one to two inches apart in the rows. One-half bushel of seed per acre is required. We prefer surface planting and cultivate the same as corn. Level culture is necessary to harvesting a full crop.

The crop should be harvested when the pods turn brown and before the beans are fully ripe. If left until the beans become thoroughly ripe, the pods will open and the beans will be scattered on the ground.

The only satisfactory way we have found for harvesting the crop is to cut the plants off just below the surface of the ground and rake them into windrows with a horse rake. Where not over ten acres are grown this cutting can be done by removing the shovels from a two horse cultivator and bolting to the inner shank of each beam a horizontal knife about 18 inches long, the knife set out from the cultivator and sloping back from point of attachment to point so as not to clog. Any blacksmith can make these knives.

Mixing of Sweet and Field Corn.

I have been growing sweet corn for 20 years, and when I have planted sweet corn within the range of field corn I have had them more or less mixed. I grew field corn for market, and when the sweet corn came in range with it I would have a small strip of sweet corn, but it would conform to the size of the field corn. I am satisfied that they would mix the first year. —Charles Black, New Jersey.

Paying For Land With One Crop.

It is sometimes boasted by western farmers on rich prairie land that with favorable seasons they have been able to clear as much money from their first good grain crop as the land originally cost them, says the American Cultivator. That is, however, usually because the land was bought at so low a rate that to make one crop pay all the original cost might not, after all, leave much if any profit to the farmer. The breaking up of prairie sod, so as to fit it for producing a crop, costs more than the sod did at first in many cases. But old made fold established and valuable farms pay their cost in crops of a single year is a different matter. It is most often done in growing fruit. A New Jersey farmer bought a cultivated farm well stocked with fruit of all kinds for $2,200. Last year he sold from it $2,450, or $250 more than the whole farm cost him. Besides fruit he grew and sold vegetables, milk and the other products of ordinary farmers. All these added to his income and increased his profits. He had doubtless a favorable year for fruits, but, as the New York farmer says, the question what profit a farmer shall make depends more on the man than on his opportunities. It is not uncommon for market gardeners to grow crops that exceed in value the land which produced them, and it is sometimes done by farmers who grow potatoes [illegible]

IMPERTINENT SIMIANS.

An Experience In the Monkey Temple at Benares.

On the occasion of our visit to the monkey temple at Banares we had provided ourselves with popcorn and other goodies which we expected to offer their holinesses. But the monkeys did not give us a chance to do that. They snatched the dainties from our hands, and when our supplies were exhausted they amused themselves by mimicking us.

One of our party, who had a bad cold, used his handkerchief with considerable emphasis. Scarcely had he replaced his handkerchief in his pocket when a monkey seized the protruding end, pulled it out and gave an excellent imitation of the act. Then, of course, some of us had kodaks, and after we had taken several pictures another personification of impudence picked up a little block of wood which lay upon the ground and with it took several snapshots at us.

A third ill conducted simian (a vain female, who deserted her infant for the purpose) grabbed from my shoulders a red chuddar scarf and in a few flying leaps carried it to a lofty minaret. There she put it on and evidently "fancied herself" immensely. But she was not allowed to retain her prize. In about three minutes at least 40 monkeys had bit a piece of my precious chuddar.

Then our native guide informed me that the monkeys were very fond of scarfs and that they captured a great many on the stone "ghats" near the temple while their owners were bathing in the river. Perhaps on the principle that "misery loves company" he seemed to think his item of news ought to console me; but, although the "monkeyshines" continued as long as we stopped in the temple "compound," I no longer found them quite so ludicrous.—Chautauquan.

CUTTLEFISH INK.

The Peculiar Liquid Which This Curious Animal Ejects.

The cuttlefish are caught in great numbers off the Cornwall coast and are used as a bait for the conger eel, for which this part of the world is celebrated. The cuttlefish possesses no real mouth, but has a long, cylindrical sucker with which it adheres firmly to the bait. The method of capturing the fish is as follows: A long line from which are suspended from 200 to 300 hooks baited with portions of pilchards (almost the only bait the cuttlefish will take) is let down into the sea and allowed to stop there for about half an hour. It is then drawn up, and the cuttlefish are found hanging by means of their suckers to the bait.

The moment that they leave the waters they eject with considerable force a great quantity of deep, black, viscous substance which is about the consistency of treacle, and the stain made by it upon the clothes of the fishermen is permanent if it happens to fall upon them.

I had a conversation with one man who has several times received a full charge in his face, and he assured me that beyond the smell, which is most nauseous, he felt no inconvenience at all, no smarting or pain in his eyes and no bad after effects.

If any of the liquid gets upon the nets, it rots them beyond repair unless it is washed off immediately. Another curious fact is that this fluid will not injure cloth in the slightest degree beyond making a permanent stain. One man told me that he had used a jersey for several years which had been squirted all over at different times by these cephalopods, but that except for the cloth being stained it was as good as ever.

When this "ink" is ejected under water, it hangs in a sort of cloud and does not spread.—London Leader.

Breaking in a pair of New Shoes is usually a painful operation; but nine times out of ten that is because either the Shoes are not right themselves or they are not properly fitted to your feet.

Give us a trial at rendering life less burdensome in that particular—to say nothing of giving you a stylish shoe at a reasonable cost.
Come in and see us while you are in the city.

Old Wilmington Always Leads

In hospitality. Her doors are all open to strangers. She has added to her past record another bright laurel in the memory of many a fireman and visitor during the past week. The City by the Sea has entertained thousands of visitors during the Firemen's Tournament, and there has been peace and plenty on every hand.

Wilmington's Big Racket Store stands for one of the advantages of the city, where visitors find a welcome and can add business to pleasure and find their wants easily supplied and at prices they never have been able to get before.
We have had a good trade. Our store has been crowded. Every department has been filled up, and, judging from the amount of money we took in and the quantity of goods we sent out, they must have all been well satisfied.
We will on Monday morning begin our closing sale in good earnest.
We have an immense stock of staple Dry Goods, and we have got to move. Our handsome new store will be ready for us by October 1st, and I am going to sell out as many Goods as possible before then.
My big Millinery department is a great attraction, and we want to sell our Hats wholesale and retail.
We can sell you a Hat at any price you want to pay from 10c to $10.00. We trim all Hats free of charge if you buy the Hat and material from us.
We have Velvet Ribbons, Neck Ribbons and Sash Ribbons at bottom prices.
We sell you Flowers at half price, from 10c to 40c and 50c a bunch. Fine Silk Chrysanthemums at 20c a bunch; Daisies, large and fine, at 10c.
Baby Caps, White Lawn, from 8c to 45c and 75c each; all at cost. Val Lace from 9c to 75c per dozen.
Boys' Wash Suits we sold at 75c to 98c, now 50c.
Aycock Hats from 75c to $2.25.
Men's Black Alpacca Coats at 85c.
Men's Wash Coats at 45c.
Men's Derby Hats I sold at 75c, now 25c.
One hundred and fifty Men's and Boys' Straw Hats to close out at 10c and 15c; sold at 25c and 50c.
Belt Rings, Gold and Black, at 5c a set.
Men's Coat Springs at 7c each.
White Sea Island Shirting, one yard wide, at 4½c; ten yards to each customer.
Ladies' Slippers, with Buckle and Strap, at 45c a pair.
Fine Dongola Slippers we sold at 90c; now 75c.
Tan Slippers at 65c; we sold at 75c.
Barring Bros.' Fine Shoes and Slippers at reduced prices, from $1.70 to $1.90 a pair; the best Shoes in the city.
I am selling quantities of Men's Fine Shirts at closing-out prices.

I am going to give every customer that spends one dollar or more with me, beginning July 16th, a piece of Carlsbad's Fine China free. We will have the Goods on exhibition and particulars at the store. If you want to buy Goods cheap and get a present free come to the Big Racket Store on Front street, opposite Orton Hotel,

GEORGE O. GAYLORD, Proprietor,

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 21.

MISSIONARIES IN CHINA.

Southern Presbyterians and Baptists in Northern China Who Are Reported to Be Safe.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

RICHMOND, VA, July 20.—The Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, with headquarters in this city, this morning received a cablegram from Che Foo, China, as follows:

"Rev. J. Willingham, D. D.—Lives saved. Pingtu looted. Christians fearfully persecuted.

(Signed) "HARTWELL."

This means that all the Baptist missionaries of the Southern Convention now in Northern China are safe. Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Lowe, who were in Pingtu, and for whose safety grave fears were felt, escaped. Rev. J. B. Hartwell himself is well known here. He has been in China for many years.

Miss Lottie Moon is the only missionary in North China from Virginia. The others there, now believed to be in Che Foo or Shanghai, are as follows:

Tung Chow, Shan Tung province—J. B. Hartwell, Mrs. Hartwell, Miss Lottie Moon, J. C. Owen, Miss Mattie Dutton.

Hwang Hien, via Che Foo—C. W. Pruitt, Mrs. Pruitt, Peyton Stephens, Mrs. Stephens, Miss E. B. Thompson.

Pingtu, Shan Tung via Kiao Chow—J. W. Lowe, Mrs. Lowe.

Nothing has been heard by the board from Central China. The reason of their silence is unknown. Those detailed to this portion of the celestial empire are as follows:

Shanghai—E. F. Tatum, Mrs. Tatum, R. T. Bryan, Mrs. Bryan, Miss Willie Kelly, Miss Lottie W. Price.

Soo Chow—T. C. Briton, Mrs. Briton.

Chin Kiang—W. W. Lawton, Mrs. Lawton, Miss Julia K. MacKenzie, Miss Alice Parker, W. E. Crocker, Mrs. Crocker.

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 19.—A cablegram has been received from Shanghai by the Mission Board of the Southern Presbyterian Church announcing the safety of 50 of its 56 missionaries. They are at Shanghai and in Japan. The six still at their stations are: Rev. J. L. Stuart and Mrs. Stuart, who have been in China for 30 years at Kudin; Rev. Geo. W. Painter and Miss E. B. French, at Hang Chow; Rev. J. B. Pear and Mrs. Pear, at Chin Kiang.

THE FIGHTING IN TIEN TSIN.

Allies' Casualties—Russian Barbarities, French Troops Bolted—The Whole Native City in Flames.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 20.—The Daily Express has received the following from Tien Tsin, dated July 18:

"The casualties of the allies in the three days fighting before the native city of Tien Tsin exceeded 1,000. It is now certain that there were several Russians and Frenchmen fighting on the Chinese side. The Chinese killed their own women wholesale to prevent them falling into the hands of the Russians.

"Yesterday the whole native city was in flames and the stench of the burning thousands of corpses was unspeakably horrible.

"Among the incidents of the fighting of July 13th was the precipitate flight of five hundred French troops from Annam. They had been ordered to hold an important point, but on being charged by the Chinese with bayonets the entire detachment bolted, panic-stricken.

"The Russians killed all the Chinese wounded in revenge for the Pekin massacre."

FIRES IN DISMAL SWAMP.

Eating Into the Timber, Undergrowth and Peaty Ground.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., July 20.—Weeks of drought have put a large portion of the Dismal Swamp in a highly inflammable condition and fires are eating into the timber, undergrowth and peaty ground at several points along the Norfolk & Western railroad. The fires are supposed to have started from Norfolk & Western locomotives. The fires are so stubbornly burning that only a good long soaking rain will extinguish them. The places already burned over are so much injured that often holes six feet deep are scooped out as if by gigantic shovels. In former years sections of the swamp have been burned to the depth of sixteen feet, and the accumulated rich peaty soil of centuries has been destroyed. If no heavy rain comes soon there may be heavy loss in the destruction of standing timber and soil. The drought has affected the depth of water in both the Dismal Swamp and Albemarle and Chesapeake canals.

MINISTER CONGER SENDS A MESSAGE.

Only Quick Relief for the Besieged Foreigners Could Avert General Massacre.

FIGHTING FOR THEIR LIVES.

In the British Legation Under Continued Shot and Shell from Chinese Troops. News Received in Washington and Sent Out to World.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Like a flash of sunlight out of the dark sky came the intelligence at an early hour to-day that United States Minister Conger had sent a cipher cable dispatch from Pekin to the State Department at Washington, making known that two days ago he was alive, and that the foreigners were fighting for their lives. The message was received by the Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang, at 8.30 A. M. Within an hour the welcome news that Minister Conger had been heard from, after weeks of silence and evil report, was flashed through the country, and indeed throughout the world, dispelling the gloom which had prevailed everywhere and bringing to officials and to the public generally a sense of profound relief.

The dispatch was in reply to Secretary Hay's cable inquiry to Minister Conger on July 11th, and as both messages were in the American cipher code, they are regarded by the officials as above the suspicion of having been tampered with in the course of transmission through Chinese channels.

Mr. Wu promptly communicated the dispatch to the State Department, where the translation was made from the cipher figures and soon all Washington was astir with the intelligence. It was telegraphed by Secretary Hay to the President, who responded with a wholesome expression of gratification, and word of it was sent to the various cabinet officers. They gathered in Secretary Hay's office and an was held in the diplomatic chamber, mainly for the purpose of exchanging congratulations and of taking a survey of the situation to see if it had been materially changed by this important development. First of all, from the standpoint of the administration officials, the most welcome feature of the message was its assurance that the American himself was alive two days ago. But with this cheering news came the ominous statement of Minister Conger that the besieged foreigners were in the British legation under continued shot and shell from Chinese troops, and that only quick relief could avert a general massacre.

After the first flush of thankfulness, this graver feature of the message began to impress itself upon cabinet officials most deeply. As one of them remarked: "There are the poor creatures, penned up under fire of shot and shell, and appealing to us for help."

Accepted as Authentic.

The consultation brought about no pronounced change of policy, for it was felt that already every energy had been sent toward meeting the situation, and that there was absolutely nothing more that could be done. After all, the cabinet officials felt, and so stated, that the message was an evidence of friendliness and good faith of the pro-foreign element of the Chinese, and that wisdom dictated a course which would continue to utilize this friendship.

The government accepted the message as authentic and Secretary Hay transmitted it to all our ambassadors and ministers abroad with instructions to lay it before the respective governments to which they are accredited and to urge upon them the necessity of co operation for the immediate relief of the foreigners at Pekin. A message was sent by Secretary Long to Admiral Remey conveying the intelligence of the desperate situation in Pekin and instructing him to "use and urge every possible

Endeavor for Relief.

This message Secretary Long explained meant for Admiral Remey to himself "use" and to "urge" upon the commanding officers of the other powers the use of every endeavor for the relief of Pekin. Secretary Root sent a similar notification to Colonel Coolidge, the senior American officer ashore at Tien Tsin, but without injunction. This action was the result of the conference of Secretaries Hay and Root. It was realized that the land and naval forces of the United States now in China could not single-handed push to Pekin and the other powers accordingly were appealed to on the basis of Minister Conger's message to co-operate for instant relief. Secretary Hay explained his reasons for placing reliance in the authenticity of Minister Conger's dispatch, saying that it was a complete reply in code to the code message sent to him and that its authenticity was vouched for by the Tsung Li Yamen.

"Of course," said Secretary Hay, smiling, "I am not omniscient, and may be fooled, but I cannot see how the authenticity of Minister Conger's cable can be questioned."

The Chinese Authorities.

Secretary Hay said he attached no significance to the use of the words "Chinese troops" in the message. They did not, in his opinion, mean that the Chinese government troops were beseiging the foreigners. He seemed to entertain little doubt that the Chinese government itself was doing all in its power to suppress the Boxer insurrection. In this connection the message from Consul Fowler that General Yuan Shih Kai, governor of Shan Tung province, reported that the Chinese authorities were doing all in their power to put down the insurrection, is exceedingly welcome intelligence. It not only confirms the theory of the State Department that the position of the Chinese government is correct, but is assumed to indicate that Yuan Shih Kai has thrown the weight of his influence on the side of the government. Yuan is considered one of the ablest, if not the ablest, generals in China. He has, according to a statement made by Lord Charles Beresford to a prominent State Department official when he was here last Fall, the best drilled and equipped army in China, under his command. Some doubt was entertained as to which side he would ally himself in the present insurrection and the fact that he appears to have come out on the side of the government is accepted as evidence that his best judgment is that Prince Tuan's rebellion is destined to fail.

Hay Congratulated.

Throughout the day the Conger message remained the absorbing topic of discussion. Secretary Hay was congratulated on the success of the step he had adopted to open up communication between Pekin and Washington, for while the chancelleries of the whole world stood hesitating and inactive, he had adopted a course which had brought a message from our minister. The Chinese minister, Mr. Wu, shared also in the universal approbation of what had been done. He seconded Mr. Hay's effort from the outset, and it is due to the official machinary set in motion by him that the communications were gotten through.

It is appreciated by the officials both American and Chinese, that there will be suspicion in some quarters. Against this it is declared that a message authenticated by the American cipher code, and backed by the integrity of the officials through whom it has passed, must be accepted as authentic until something better than mere suspicion is brought forth.

Corroborative Dispatches.

Later in the day several messages were received from U. S. Consul Fowler, at Che Foo, all strongly confirmatory of the news that the foreigners were alive.

The fact that the cablegram from Minister Conger was given scant credence in London official circles had no dampening effect on the optimism of the administration officials. It was pointed out by one of the officials most interested that the weight of internal evidence in the dispatch was in favor of its genuineness. Beside there were the several strongly corroborative dispatches from Consul General Goodnow and Consul Fowler. The fact that Minister Conger mentioned the bombardment of the British legation was considered good evidence that the dispatch was written subsequent to the sixth, as the best information here is that the bombardment of the legations did not begin prior to that date. It was said at the State Department that it was not thought expedient to give out either the text or a paraphase of the message sent by the State Department on July 11 to Minister Conger.

Cablegram from Conger.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The State Department this morning received the following cablegram from Minister Conger at Pekin:

"In British legation. Under continued shot and shell from Chinese troops. Quick relief only can prevent general massacre."

The message is not dated, but it is understood was sent from Pekin on the 18th.

The following statement was given out to-day at the State Department:

"On the 11th of this month the State Department communicated a brief message asking tidings of Minister Conger in the State Department code. Minister Wu undertook to get this into Minister Conger's hands, if he were alive. He has succeeded in doing this. This morning the State Department received a telegram from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, saying:

"The Governor of Shan Tung informs me that he has received to-day a cipher message from Conger of the 18th."

A few minutes later Minister Wu appeared at the State Department with a telegram from Taotai Shen, dated 20th July, which had been received by Minister Wu at 8.30 o'clock this morning, reading as follows:

"Your telegram was forwarded and as requested I send reply from the Tsung Li Yamen as follows: 'Your telegram of the 15th day of this moon (11th July) received. The State Department telegram has been handed to Minister Conger. Herewith is Minister Conger's reply to the State Department.'"

Then follows Minister Conger's reply to the State Department cipher, signed with the word "Conger" in English.

Ministers in Pekin Are Well.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Secretary of State to-day received a telegram from Consul Fowler, at Che Foo, dated afternoon of the 20th, saying that he had received the following telegram from the governor of Shan Tung, dated at 10 o'clock.

"Received flying express from the Tsung Li Yamen, forwarding cipher telegram, dated July 18th, from American minister, Pekin, which I have transmitted and by which you will see that the newspaper accounts are entirely rumors."

The State Department also has received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated night, July 20th, in which he communicates the following message telegraphed to him that day by the governor of Shan Tung:

"I have just received definite information that the various ministers in Pekin are well and the proper Chinese authorities are devising means for their rescue and protection."

This message is signed by Yuan, the governor of Shan Tung.

Immediate Relief Urged.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary Long has sent the following cablegram to Admiral Remey:

"Conger telegraphs that he is under fire in the British legation, Pekin. Use and urge every means possible for immediate relief. "LONG."

Secretary Long this afternoon received the following dispatch from Admiral Remey, dated Che Foo, July 20th:

"Conger has wired me that he is in the British legation under shot and shell and unless relief is sent at once he will be massacred. I urge immediate relief be sent. "REMEY."

DOUBTED IN LONDON.

Minister Conger's Message Regarded as a Further Attempt at Mystification.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 20.—Minister Conger's message to the State Department at Washington is not regarded here as justifying over much optimism, but on the contrary is generally accepted as a further Chinese attempt at mystification. Some think that the fact that the message is undated, and the similarity of its contents to Sir Robert Hart's message of June 24th, suggests that it was sent off about the same time but was intercepted by the Chinese. The skeptical are confirmed in their suspicions by the fact that a message was received by M. Del Casse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, to-day, through the Chinese minister at Paris, purporting to come from the Emperor, asking France's mediation with the powers and which, it is alleged, was dated July 19th and makes no mention of the foreign legations at Pekin.

TOTAL NET RECEIPTS OF COTTON.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The following are the total net receipts of cotton at all ports since September 1st, 1899: Galveston, 1,699,541 bales; New Orleans, 1,847,752; Mobile, 206,176; Savannah, 1,068,993; Charleston, 261,535; Wilmington, 279,539; Norfolk, 298,966; Baltimore, 97,533; New York, 117,251; Boston, 112,488; Newport News, 17,935; Philadelphia, 48,602; Brunswick, 92,405; Port Arthur Sabine Pass, 68,029; Pensacola, 129,892. Total, 6,447,067 bales.

Total bank clearings in the principal cities of the United States for the week ended July 19, were $1,471,651,900; a decrease of 12.5 per cent. compared with last year. Outside of New York, $628,865,441; a decrease of 1.3 per cent.

DON'T BELIEVE IT IS GENUINE.

Dispatch from Minister Conger at Pekin Regarded as a Fake in London.

DISCREDITED IN GERMANY.

If Genuine It Would Have Gone More Into Details—The Washington Government Congratulated Upon Its Energy—Appeal to Powers.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 21, 4 A. M.—The Conger dispatch fails to carry conviction to either the British press or the public. The genuine news is not disputed, for as it is pointed out here, the Chinese must possess quite a sheaf of such messages, which the ministers fruitlessly endeavored to get transmitted, from which they could easily select a non-committal dispatch to serve the required purpose.

It is supposed that Mr. Conger omitted to destroy the cipher code, and that this is now in the possession of the Chinese, in which event the selection or concoction of the dispatch would not be difficult. It is argued that the dispatch, if it were a genuine reply to the inquiries of the American government, would go more into details. A slight ray of hope is admitted in the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Conger were known to have been on very friendly terms with the Empress Dowager, but the universal opinion here is that if the dispatch is genuine the date is falsified.

The bare possibility that the news of the massacre was premature, however, has had its effect, and the government has issued a semi official disclaimer of responsibility for the proposed memorial service in St. Paul's Cathedral, while the newspapers are calling for the postponement of the service until all doubts are set at rest.

Congratulations.

The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial congratulating the Washington government upon its energy, says:

"Unless the powers are capable of responding immediately to Mr. Hay's appeal by ordering their united forces to face and risk all for an immediate advance, the days not only of old chivalry but of modern humanity are dead together."

Sir Halliday MacArtney, counsellor and English secretary to the Chinese legation in London, who was interviewed yesterday, admitted that the legation was in receipt of news which it was not yet able to disclose. He added:

"You may take it that on July 18th, the date of the Conger message, that all the legations in Pekin were safe. I cannot say why the other ministers are not able to communicate with their governments, but there is no reason why they should not use the same channel as Mr. Conger employed. Perhaps a supreme effort was made for Mr. Conger's message, and possibly the Chinese do not realize the anxiety existing in Europe."

Chinese Treachery and Cunning.

BERLIN, July 20.—The German government feels confident that the present attempts by Chinese officials to deny the Pekin massacre are insincere and dictated solely by a desire to hamper and retard the powerful joint action of the powers. At the Chinese legation here, where also denials of the massacre have arrived from the viceroys, the statement was made today to the correspondent of the Associated Press, that the Chinese minister himself, Lu Hai Houan, placed small reliance upon them. Lu Hai Houan has in no wise replied to the recent prohibition by the Foreign Office of his use of the telegraph for secret messages, but he has since sent to Count Von Buelow several telegrams for his approval, which has been granted.

The Foreign Office considers that the gravest point in the situation just now is the doubtful attitude of the southern and central viceroys, with the evident spread of anti-foreign hostilities. The news received here on this score is meagre, but it all points to treachery and to a cunning policy of procrastination by the viceroys until the moment shall have arrived when they can afford to discard dissimulation. Yuan Shih Kai, Governor of Shan Tung, is regarded here as worse than unreliable.

The Foreign Office feels glad that all these Chinese ruses have not succeeded in blinding the powers or in retarding their serious military preparations.

Sensational Stories

Official circles deny a number of sensational stories printed by the English press—stories which the Foreign Office characterizes as made of the same cloth as many that were set afloat during the Spanish-American war and the earlier stages of the hostilities in South Africa. The only story having any foundation, according to the Foreign Office, is that the question of who is to be the commander in-chief is now engaging the attention of the powers.

Regarding this a Foreign Office official said: "The suggestion to make Lord Wolseley or some other English officer the commander in-chief does not meet with approval anywhere. This is hardly strange, because the British land force in China is rather insignificant, as well authenticated information shows. The proposal to make a German the chief commander would not be accepted by Germany unless a unanimous wish to that effect were expressed by the powers interested."

Allied Troops in China.

The semi-official Militair Wochenblatt asserts, from alleged authentic figures, that the number of allied troops now in China is 43,000. Of these, however, 20,000 Russians are located in Liao Tung peninsula and Kwan Tung province, and 1,600 Germans, with sixteen field guns, twelve heavy guns and six machine guns, at Kaio Chou. Now on the way from Germany, France and England there are about 15,000 men, and the first part of a Japanese division is also enroute.

Arrangements have been made for the departure of 57,000 men with 144 guns, and altogether there will be from present arrangements, in China by September, 16,000 Germans, 12,000 English, 5,000 French, 50,000 Russians, 21,000 Japanese, 7,000 Americans, 2,000 Italians and 170 Austrians, together with 311 guns and 36 machine guns.

Situation at Canton.

HONG KONG, July 20.—A message from Canton, received here to-day, reports that all the Tartar troops have moved into the Bogue and other outer forts, and that some of the Black Flags have moved into the Tartar general's compound. Three thousand other Black Flags, with their chiefs, are in an entrenched camp, with artillery, while ten thousand others have moved elsewhere. Canton itself is quiet.

LONDON, July 20.—A special dispatch from Hong Kong says a French gunboat has landed three hundred Annam soldiers to protect Shamien, a suburb of Canton.

In Prince Ching's Palace.

PARIS, July 20.—The Foreign Office has received information from a Chinese source, in which, however, certain reliance may be placed, that the foreign ministers at Pekin have not been massacred. According to this information, on July 7th the ministers were attacked and the legations burned, but the foreigners succeeded in crossing the city to Prince Ching's palace, which was then barricaded, and the Europeans were holding their own up to the time the news left—July 9th. Since then nothing has been heard from Pekin.

COUNTERFEITERS CAUGHT.

An Important Seizure by Secret Service Officers in New Jersey.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Chief Hazen, of the secret service, with a number of Hoboken policemen, went to Rutherford, N. J., to day, and made an important seizure of counterfeits and counterfeiting apparatus. The seizure followed the arrest of Richard P. Genser, in Hoboken, on Thursday night. He had been frequenting a resort in that city, and getting the barmaids to obtain change for ten-dollar and two-dollar bills for him. When searched at the station house nineteen two-dollar counterfeits, three tens and one twenty were found on him, all so well executed that only experts could tell they were not genuine. His house contained two printing presses and a complete lithographing outfit.

White Supremacy

Two years ago the white men of this county boldly and openly declared that negro domination was and should ever be a thing of the past, and that White Supremacy had come to stay. White government is here and will ever remain, but it is the duty of every white man to REGISTER and settle once for all time this momentous question through the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment. The whites are the property owners and wealth producers, and have neither time nor disposition to habitually work politics, and the Amendment is offered as the only sure means to establish and maintain white government without frequent recurrence to political agitation. Government is the public business of the people, and the better the government the better the private business.

New Hanover will give 3,000 majority for the Amendment and White Supremacy, if every white man will do his duty and register. Remember that if the Amendment carry, the political status is fixed for all time to come, but if it fail, it means another campaign of agitated feeling, political unrest and business uncertainty. It must be clear, therefore, that the Amendment is a business as well as a social proposition. Politically the negro is now a back number. With the adoption of the Amendment, he will be a dead language.
